

Indwelling Sin in Believers by John Owen

Chapter 3: Sin in the Heart

1. In which part of man does Owen say that sin has entrenched itself?
2. What does Jesus say comes from this?
3. How is the working of the law of sin described in Genesis 6:5?
4. The more men sin the less likely they are to continue to sin. (True/False)
5. What is the main meaning of the word “heart” in Scripture?
6. What are two implications flowing from the law of sin having its seat in the heart?
 1. That the things done are _____
 2. That the person does these with _____
7. From Jeremiah 17:9-10, one of the properties of the heart is _____
8. Much of the strength of the law of sin lies in what?
9. How does Owen describe the mind, will, and affections in relation to our perception of victory over sin (lust, for example)?
10. What is the best thing we can do regarding the unsearchable character of sin in the heart?
11. Also from Jeremiah 17:9-10, not only is the heart unsearchable, it is also _____
12. The heart is always consistent and never contradicts itself. (True/False)
13. The heart’s promises always come true. (True/False)
14. Once we have successfully defeated some sin we will never have to face it again. (True/False)
15. Owen closes the chapter with three considerations:
 1. Let us never reckon _____
 2. We must be _____
 3. We must commit the matter to _____