

Indwelling Sin in Believers by John Owen

Chapter 4: Enmity Against God

1. What difference does Owen make between sin being an enemy of God and enmity against God?
2. How much of the law of sin is enmity against God?
3. Mortification of sin lessens its _____ but cannot change its _____ .
4. The grace that changes the nature of man can also change the nature of sin (true/false).
5. What should we expect as we deal with enmity itself?
6. A great part of its power lies in _____
7. What illustration does Owen use to describe those who try to appease sin by satisfying its lusts?
8. How does the illustration of a house on fire relate to this enmity?
9. Who is the chief object of the enmity of sin?
10. Why is this enmity not opposed to false religions and superstitions?
11. “Every act of sin is a fruit of _____”
12. The carnal mind loves God and rejoices to obey His law (true/false)
13. What are the two inseparable features of enmity against God?
14. Is the law of sin more opposed to the Law of God or the Gospel of Jesus Christ?
15. When Christ comes by His grace to conquer the soul of man He finds a quiet and peaceful place to enter in (true/false)
16. Even after Christ has entered in, sin still seeks to dwell in every part of man.
 1. How does it affect the mind?
 2. How does it affect the will?

Indwelling Sin in Believers by John Owen

3. How does it affect the emotions?